On 15th February 2018, a 15 year old child volunteer purchased 4 cans of lager from the premises known as Bensham News during a trading standards test purchasing exercise.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application (please read guidance note 3)

The sale was made by a relative of the premises licence holder who was left alone in the shop at the time of the sale.

Following an investigation into the potential offence, it has come to light that the DPS for the premises does not play a significant role in the operation of the business and that the frequency of his visits may be insufficient for the individual concerned to fulfill the responsibilities associated with the role.

The Authority also has concerns over the on-going suitability of the relative involved in the above incident to be left alone in charge of the shop with the responsibility of preventing the sale of alcohol to children while the premises licence holder is away from the premises.

The sale was made by the uncle of the Premises Licence Holder of the business, Mr Sudesh Kumar MALHOTRA. The owner and premises licence holder, Mr Shiv Khant JERATH was not present at the time. Other than asking for the money, Mr MALHOTRA did not speak to the child throughout the transaction.

Mr MALHOTRA was unable to produce the refusals register at the request of the Trading Standards Officer. There was a Challenge 21 sign on display in the shop with a Challenge 25 sign immediately next to it.

Mr MALHOTRA confirmed during interview that he was not employed by business but was only covering the shop while Mr JERATH went to the cash and carry. Mr MALHOTRA confirmed that he knew he shouldn't sell to anyone under 18 years but he believed that the volunteer looked older. Mr MALHOTRA confirmed that there were no written records of any training carried out.

Mr JERATH confirmed that he was operating the business as a sole trader and that he was the premises licence holder. He confirmed that the DPS was Anil SANDU who did not work at the shop as he had his own business in Cowgate. Mr JERATH confirmed that Mr SANDU came to the shop every day. Mr JERATH confirmed that Mr MALHOTRA helped him out between 4-5 days per week depending on his health. He is in the shop no longer than 45 minutes and has been doing this since November 2017.

When asked what measures Mr JERATH had taken to prevent sales he stated that he used a Challenge 21 policy but has since decided to follow the Challenge 25 policy and has removed the posters for the C21. He produced a refusals register which was being used in the shop. The only signature being used was that of Mr JERATH.

Mr JERATH understood that Mr MALHOTRA had not taken his diabetes medication on the morning of the sale, had got confused and thought that the volunteer looked overage. Mr JERATH confirmed that he believed Mr MALHOTRA to be competent to continue working in the shop.
