

ANNUAL REPORT ON
ADULT SERVICES COMPLAINTS-COMPLIMENTS-REPRESENTATIONS
1 APRIL 2015 – 31 MARCH 2016

Introduction

The Local Authority Social Services and National Health Service Complaints (England) Regulations 2009 came into force on 1 April 2009. This legislation sets down the procedures that Adult Social Care Services and National Health Services, (NHS), must follow when complaints or representations are made.

Representations may not always be complaints; they might also be positive remarks or ideas that require a response from the Council. Enquiries or comments about the availability, delivery or quality of a service, which are not criticisms, also constitute representations.

As part of the responsibilities set out in the Act, local authorities must produce an annual report on all complaints and representations received. This report fulfils Gateshead Council's obligations and provides information on all representations received about the Council's Adult Social Care Services from 1 April 2014 – 31 March 2015.

There are two steps to the Statutory Complaints Process;

1. Informal (Local) resolution by the Council;
2. Independent consideration by the Local Government Ombudsman, (LGO).

All complaints must be assessed and given a grading. Categories of complaint are:

- Green Low-level or minimal risk for either the service user or the Council;
- Amber Moderate or medium risk;
- Red Serious complaint graded as high risk.

There are no prescribed timescales for resolution as the quality of the investigation and outcome is significantly more important than attempting to adhere to a stipulated period for response. However, it is very important that the complainant is always kept up to date on the progress of investigation.

Publicity and Information

Publicity on how to complain can be provided in several formats, encouraging and facilitating easy access to the complaints process. All new service users receive a complaints leaflet in their information pack. A leaflet is also provided when a service user receives the outcome to an assessment / reassessment of need.

Independent Element

The Council operates an internal investigation procedure. Complaints administration is fully independent of any service delivery to ensure fairness and impartiality.

Advocacy and Special Needs

Vulnerable people receiving a Social Care service are encouraged and supported to express their views and to access the complaints procedure if they wish. In all cases advocacy is offered if it is felt that the complainant would benefit from this service.

Individuals who wish to complain about a Public Health service can obtain free independent advocacy support. This advocacy is Government funded and is exclusively for Health Service complaints.

Training and Employee Development

Training for Investigating Officers is provided on an annual basis. All Adult Social Care Team Managers / Service Managers are expected to have undertaken investigating skills training.

The Investigating Skills Training Course is facilitated by the Local Government Ombudsman. This training concentrates on defining, investigating and resolving complex complaints. It also emphasises the need to identify any improvements that may be necessary as a direct result of individual complaints.

A Local Government Ombudsman Investigating Skills Training Course is to be arranged for October 2016. This will allow new Adult Social Care Managers to be trained to the LGO investigation standards. It will also provide existing Managers with the opportunity to refresh their investigatory skills.

Equalities Monitoring

Gateshead Council recognises that equality monitoring of service delivery is crucial for effective planning and scrutiny of the services that it provides. This monitoring can identify which groups are using services and gauge their level of satisfaction. The information can then be used to highlight possible inequalities, investigate their underlying causes and address any unfairness or disadvantage.

Information about the complaints process can be made available in key languages and formats. Information for customers with sight or hearing impairment can also be provided.

Representations Received from 1 April 2015 and 31 March 2016.

During 2015/16, 62 complaints were received regarding Adult Social Care Services. This is a 3% decrease on complaints received during 2014/15, (64).

The number of low level issues received also decreased by 23% during 2015/16, (44 from 57). The majority of low level issues were dealt with directly by the services concerned and were resolved to the customer's satisfaction. In some cases, all that was required was a discussion between the complainant and either the Social Worker or the Team Manager to clarify issues or to identify what was required to put things right. Before closure, the complainant is asked to confirm that they are satisfied that the issue had been resolved.

Themes of Complaints Received 2015/16

There were two main themes of complaints received during 2015/16.

1. Quality of Service

During 2015/16, quality of service remained the main theme of complaint. 53%, (33), of complaints that were received during this period were regarding the quality of the services being provided. Issues raised included:

- The quality of support given to individuals;
- Disputes when workers did not support the views of family members;
- Disputes when workers were acting in the best interests of the service user;
- Issues about how assessments were carried out. In particular sharing information about charging for care.

After investigation, 34%, (10), of complaints were not found to be justified and 41%, (12), were partially upheld. Only 20%, (6), of complaints about quality of service were upheld. Any improvements from these complaints are included within this report.

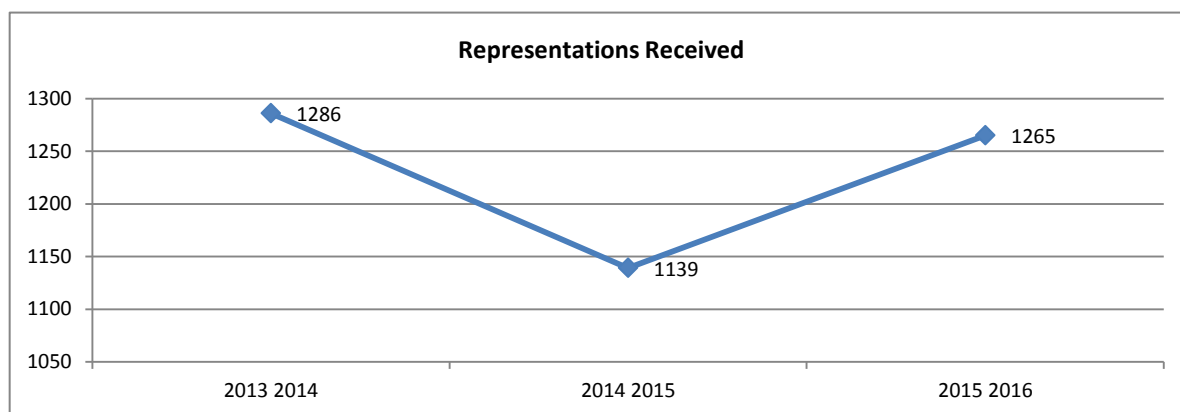

2. Staff Issues

18 complaints were received which included issues around staff conduct. From this figure, 15 complaints had attitude / behaviour as their main issue. In all cases any areas about staff behaviour are fully investigated to ensure that any inappropriate conduct is dealt with and measures are put in place to prevent any reoccurrence. This could be either monitoring staff behaviour through individual supervision sessions or by providing additional or refresher training. If the issues were serious, the Council may also invoke their own internal employment procedures.

- There has been a 11% increase in formal recorded contacts since 2014/15.
- However this is due to the increase in compliments received during this period as the number of formal concerns received have reduced by 3%.
- Complaint related queries reduced by 25%. Complaint related queries are low-level representations that must be resolved within one working day after receipt.
- The main theme from low level issues received during 2015/16 was regarding the quality of home care services, (9). 5 were regarding commissioned home care and 4 were about Council provided home care and were mostly around charging for care. All home care issues were resolved to the complainant's satisfaction.
- After consideration of all low level issues received during 2015/16, it was found that no low level concern had resulted in a formal complaint.
- Commissioned Service Issues are concerns received by other professionals on behalf of service users which are then shared with the providers to resolve themselves. During 2015/16, 51 commissioned service issues were received. This is a 20% decrease on the number received during 2014/15, (64).

- After consideration of the issues raised, 4 statutory complaints were immediately referred to the Safeguarding Adults Procedure. Safeguarding Adult Co-ordinators are then responsible for liaising with the complainant and ensuring that they are kept up to date of any developments.
- 85% of representations made during 2015/16 were compliments and only 15% were concerns or formal complaints.

- Complaints about Assessment and Personalisation and Provider Services increased since 2014/15, but have continued to reduce from the number received during 2013/14, (81). The Services have confirmed that the continued reduction from 2013/14 is partly a result of more people having a better understanding of changes in practice resulting from the Care Act 2014.
- The number of complaints assessed as Green (minimal risk to the Council or service user) accounted for 6% of the total number of complaints received.
- Amber complaints, which are medium risk to the Council or the service user, accounted for 92% of all complaints received. This evidences that complaints are continuing to increase in complexity and often include a number of issues.
- The number of complaints that are assessed as Red, (high risk to the Council or the service user), has remained constant since 2013/14.

However, after consideration of the issues raised, it is clear that complaints are becoming more complex and often include a number of issues requiring investigation. Therefore, it is important that the quality of the investigation is not compromised to achieve timescales. In all cases, the Investigating Officer is expected to ensure that the complainant is kept informed of any delays and is informed on when they can expect a response.

Any feedback, which includes dissatisfaction, is helpful to inform the Commissioning Team of how the current care services are operating and how they could be commissioned in the future.

- During 2015/16, 4 compliments were received about the quality of the work carried out by individual Contract Management Officers.

Health & Social Care Joint Investigations

The statutory complaints process covers NHS and Social Care Services.

All complaints that are received which are about services provided by both Health and Social Care are co-ordinated by either the Council's Complaints Manager or the Complaints Manager responsible for the Health Service area subject to the complaint. The organisation responsible for the majority of the complaint will take the lead in the investigation and will ensure that a combined response letter is sent to the complainant within the agreed timescales.

3 complaints were around services provided by both Health and Social Care during 2015/16. This is a decrease of 40%, (5), since 2014/15.

2 complaints were led by Adult Social Care, 1 complaint was led by colleagues within Health. All complaints included elements regarding the Queen Elizabeth Hospital. Issues complained about included the standard of care provided to the service user by both Adult Social Care and Health workers, the quality of support provided in relation to discharge, how sensitive information was dealt with and delays organising a service.

After investigation, 2 complaints were upheld and 1 complaint was partially upheld. Any improvements to Adult Services are outlined within this report.

Safeguarding Adults Concerns

During 2015/16, 4 concerns were received which immediately identified areas of possible abuse against vulnerable adults. All 4 complaints were considered through the Safeguarding Adults Process.

3 complaints were received about the management of the Safeguarding Process. This is a decrease of 40%, (5), since 2014/15. The complaints were all regarding the quality of communication to families or representatives of service users who were the subject of the alleged abuse. After investigation, 1 complaint was not upheld, 1 complaint was partially upheld and 1 complaint was later withdrawn.

Public Health Complaints

During 2015/16, there were no formal complaints received by the Council regarding Public Health Services. However, as all commissioned services, which includes Public Health, are required to have their own complaints procedure, the services are responsible for the management of their complaints and compliments themselves.

To ensure that all of the services offered by Public Health are of a recognised standard, the Public Health Contract Management Officer has developed a reporting mechanism so satisfaction / dissatisfaction can be monitored.

The agencies have continued to report the number of complaints and compliments received on a regular basis. During 2015/16, there have been 19 concerns and 199 compliments about Public Health Services.

Learning from Complaints: Examples of Service Improvements

Learning from complaints is critical to prevent recurrence of the cause(s) of the original complaint. It is important that we make sure that people's experiences help the Council to improve services where possible. Changes can include policy, procedure or employee development.

Complaints about individual practice or failure to follow procedures are dealt with by reinforcement of processes and reiterating customer care standards through Service / Team meetings or individual supervision sessions.

In all cases, any justified issues regarding attitude or conduct of staff are dealt with in line with internal employment procedures.

Improvements after a complaint include:

Promoting Independence Centres

- If medical assistance for a resident within the Promoting Independence Centre is summoned, even if non-urgent, family or carers must be informed at the earliest opportunity, even if they are expected at some point the same day. This recommendation is now embedded in the service quality assurance systems and has been communicated to all staff.
- Staff at Promoting Independence Centres now contact Gateshead Equipment Service, (GES), immediately if there are any concerns relating to equipment supplied by GES. After which they will inform the Social Worker, district nurse and/or other professionals involved in the persons care.
- Promoting Independence Staff should record all settings of equipment installed, to ensure that they are appropriate to the person using the equipment.
- All Promoting Independence Centre equipment is now inspected and reviewed on a regular basis and prior to use to ensure that it meets health and safety requirements. This inspection is then validated within written records.
- On admission to the Promoting Independence Centre where multi-agency involvement is required, all professionals will be expected to meet with service users and their families to explain roles and responsibilities. This will ensure well-defined goal plans and outcomes and guarantee a positive experience within the Centre.

- Appropriate documentation has been developed for multi-agency use to ensure records demonstrate seamless and chronological recordings of the input and actions of professionals' involvement.
- Regular planning and review meetings are now held with service users/families to update on progress. It will also gather views about service user's experiences during their stay within a Promoting Independence Centre.
- Carer consultations are also now carried out on a regular and timely basis to ensure that they are reassured and satisfied with the care being provided.
- A timetable of activities should be fully visible within Promoting Independence Centres to ensure service users and their families are aware of social opportunities during a stay. This information is also now discussed on admission and within review meetings.
- At least one member of staff now remains visible in residential communal areas where a number of service users' are present to provide assistance when necessary.
- Promoting Independence Staff now ensure that all visitors, including nurses or other professionals are reminded to sign the visitor's book. A visual notice has also been placed above the book instructing all visitors to sign in/out.
- All Promoting Independence Centres who accept an emergency admission must ensure that they confirm that the service user or their representative is aware of the fees and charges required for their stay and gain the service user/representatives agreement to this.
- All staff within Promoting Independence Centres have been reminded of their own personal responsibility when dealing with dissatisfaction. Staff have also been reminded that any concerns reported to them directly should be dealt with through the appropriate process / procedure.

Assessment & Personalisation

- All workers have been reminded of the need to include close family members, (or any others significant in the care of the service user), in the assessment and care planning process. This requirement will be regularly discussed and recorded on personal supervision documents.
- All staff have been reminded to ensure that clear information is given to service users and their families when terminating services.
- It has been arranged with the Queen Elizabeth Hospital that before a referral to Adult Social Care is made, that staff must gain written confirmation from either the service user or appropriate family members. This will ensure that people want to engage with Adult Social Care beforehand. It has also been arranged with Hospital staff that a private room is made available for those patients and relatives who want to talk confidentially with a social worker or assessing officer.
- The Rapid Response Team have developed a contingency plan as part of their Standard Operating Procedures, which is now followed in times of increased pressure on the service. This will ensure that staff are aware of the procedure and give them confidence to accept all appropriate referrals with the knowledge they will be able to respond within their target time of 2 hours.
- A clear method of communication has been set up between the Rapid Response Team and the out of hours Care Call and Emergency Duty Team, to keep them informed of service developments and clarifying the remit of the Rapid Response service.

Compliments

Information about compliments is fed into all Adult Social Care Services, including the Commissioning Team, to highlight good practice and to identify opportunities for improvements to services.

There has been a 17% increase in compliments compared to the amount received during 2014/15. Compliments accounted for 85% of all representations made during 2015/16.

- 32%, (347), of compliments, received in 2015/16 focused on the care provided by the Councils Promoting Independence Centres.
- 30%, (327), were regarding Council provided Domiciliary Care.
- 55%, (181), of Council Domiciliary Care compliments were about the START service. The START Service is a short term reablement team who concentrate on providing service users with the skills to remain at home. This service can help prevent the need for larger or more long term packages of care.
- 14%, (154), of compliments were regarding Services provided by Assessment & Personalisation.
- 58%, (89), of compliments about Assessment & Personalisation were about the Physical Disability Teams.
- 5%, (56), of all compliments were regarding Health & Housing Support.

Conclusions

Adult Services complaints decreased by 3% compared to 2014/15 figures.

Although complaints about Assessment and Personalisation and Provider Services increased, the Service have confirmed that the continued reduction from the high number received in 2013/14 is partly a result of more people having a better understanding of changes in practice resulting from the Care Act 2014. Workers are now applying eligibility criteria robustly which often results in dissatisfaction from those who either dispute the outcome of their assessment or feel that the Assessing Officer had not conducted the assessment / review appropriately.

The national profile of Commissioned Care Services continues to be raised throughout national and local media. This scrutiny is reflected with the number of concerns raised either by relatives of those receiving a service or by other professionals undertaking reviews of services. This evidences that all those who are involved in a service user's care, either professionally or a family member ensure that any concerns are highlighted and dealt with appropriately.

Gateshead Council's Adult Social Care has recently been reviewed. It is expected that changes to how the services are delivered in future will be beneficial to both current service users and those who may later require a service. It will also mean that referrals and requests for support are dealt with quickly and any identified needs of service users are met in a timely manner.
